

Who is My Neighbor?

A Fair Housing Forum

April 16, 2005

9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

First Unitarian Church, Cincinnati
536 Linton Street, corner of Reading & Linton

- Segregated living patterns in the Cincinnati metropolitan area.
- What is Section 8 and why are people so afraid of it?
- What do our faith traditions say about who is our neighbor and welcoming strangers?
- The role of faith based organizations as developers of affordable housing.
- How are the fair housing laws enforced?
- Housing for the elderly and people with disabilities.

Sponsored by: League of Women Voters of the Cincinnati Area
Amos Project
Woman's City Club
Metropolitan Area Religion Coalition of Cincinnati (MARCC)
Housing Opportunities Made Equal (HOME)
Advocates for Affordable Housing (A-HA)

Pre-registration required. No registration fee. Optional box lunch for $10.

Send registration form and check for lunch to:

LWVCA, 103 Wm H Taft Road, Cincinnati, OH 45219

or e-mail registration to lwvcincy@eos.net

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____ e-mail address _____

Yes, I want to purchase lunch for $10 _____

Workshop Choices:

9:30 a.m.

____ Section 8 Vouchers

____ Fair Housing Laws

11:00 a.m.

____ Role of Faith-based Organizations

____ Housing for Elderly & People with Disabilities